

Song: "Wonderful Life"

Album: Reckonings (2023 Release by Eric Kilburn)

I wish I had the words to tell you, but I can only lick your face
I see how hard this is for you, but for me, it's a final grace
Thinking back on all the good times, the adventures we all shared together
Those warm sunny days when I flew up mountains
I felt like I could run forever

(Chorus)

Thanks for everything, I know you loved me
With all your heart and might
I can only say before I travel on my way
I had a wonderful life

I know this place where you have brought me, but I'm not scared anymore
I'm tired, I'm old and I am hurting, so carry me through that open door
Hold me close and let me pass on; I know you did all that you could
As my breathing slows and the light leaves my eyes
I'm so grateful to have shared these years with you

(Chorus)
